5.1 Motion brought forward from Director Patti MacAhonic, Electoral Area E regarding Choose Team Canada Approach in Response to US Tariffs and Buy Local Imperative

Moved By MACAHONIC
Seconded By SMITH

WHEREAS

1. President Donald Trump has imposed unilateral 25% tariffs on Canadian exports to the US, and further punitive tariffs in the event of any Canadian retaliation, Trump's tariffs are anticipated to destabilize the North American trading block and Canadian economy;
2. Experts suggest Trump's tariffs could cost the Canadian economy $275 billion in GDP by 2030 and more than 200,000 in lost jobs;
3. On February 2, while proposing a temporary pause to his tariff agenda, President Trump reiterated his desire to see Canada become part of the United States. "What I'd like to see— Canada become our 51st state,' Trump said in the Oval Office when asked what concessions Canada could offer to stave off tariffs.";
4. Prime Minister Trudeau has announced the federal government's response to any Trump tariffs with phased and targeted retaliatory tariffs, and a consumer call to action urging Canadians to "choose Canada";
5. Provincial, territorial, municipal, regional, and First Nations governments from coast to coast are united in a collective Team Canada approach to respond to US economic threats and aggression;
6. Canada's premiers have agreed to measures to strengthen internal trade and economic cooperation, and in BC, Premier Eby has suggested Crown Corporations halt buying American goods and services and instead buy Canadian goods and services first;
7. In response to tariff threats the Greater Vancouver Board of Trade (GVBOT) has challenged B.C. politicians of all political stripes to adopt a three-per-cent annual GDP growth target; and
8. The benefits of buying local are well documented, according to Canadian Federation of Independent Businesses (CFIB), 66 cents on average stay local for every dollar spent at a local business as the greatest share goes to procuring goods from other local, independent businesses, while according to the Independent BC report local businesses return 63% of revenue back in BC's economy compared to 14% for multi-national companies, and local independent businesses contribute to more vibrant Local Shopping Areas and play an important role in the livability and sustainability of the Fraser Valley Regional District electoral areas, municipalities and neighbourhoods.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED

1. THAT the Fraser Valley Regional District Board direct staff to support Canadian businesses in a "Buy Canadian" strategy, purchasing goods and services that are based in Canada, while ensuring compliance with all applicable trade agreements and procurement practices with specific value thresholds.

Discussion ensued with respect to the preamble whereas clauses included in the Notice of Motion, resulting in the following amendment being brought forward:

Moved By PRANGER
Seconded By KLOOT

THAT the main motion be amended by striking the preamble whereas clauses from the motion.

6. LEGISLATIVE SERVICES

6.1 Board Direction on Updates to the FVRD Board and Committee Procedures Bylaw

Discussion ensued with respect to options for updates to the FVRD Board and Committee Procedures Bylaw. The Committee provided direction on updating the procedures bylaw to include the option for determining the results of an election for Chair and Vice Chair to include two rounds of tie voting before determining election results by way of draw by lot. The Committee also discussed the meeting start time for FVRD Board meetings and concerns were raised regarding daytime meetings and possible conflicts for some member municipalities. Comments were offered noting a preference to changing the FVRD Board meeting start time to coincide with the 2026-2030 Board term. Further comments were offered by the Committee regarding the timeline required for distributing agendas prior to all FVRD Committee and Board meetings.
